FIGHT GOES THE TWENTY ROUNDS

Lafontise and King Make Bout a Draw.

WAS A VERY TAME AFFAIR

MANY PRESENT WERE MUCH DISAPPOINTED.

CROWD of disappointed ring followers gathered at the Salt Lake Athletic club last night and witnessed Buddy King of Denver and Mose Lafontise of Butte go through twenty rounds of as time fighting as has been witnessed in this city for some time. The men agreed to hit in the clinch and protect themselves in the breakaway, with the result that the fight was one long clinch from the sound of the gong until the end of the last round. Referee Bean then of the last round. Referee Bean then tepped into the ring and declared the stepped into the ring and declared the contest a draw.

It is safe to say that not a hard blow was struck during the entire fight and one thing is certain and that is that neither man at any stage of the game showed the least sign of distress. Neither man was sent to the mat and not a drop of blood was shed, which indicates that at no time was either fighter in any danger of losing the contest. Although at several stages of the fight it appeared that a little effort on the part of Mose would win him the fight, yet the Butteman did not take advantage of the opportunity and let the colored boy recover himself to prevent further injury.

Harkness is known to be a brave man, one who would not quail before This fight was the sharpest five-round ontest which has been seen in London a whole regiment of Filipinos or a den of grizzlies, but the life of an umpire or a long time. A big crowd attended, ncluding Tom Sharkey, Gus Ruhlin, Joe Walcott and other participants in the bugilistic tournament to be held here in connection with the coronation festivin the Utah league was too strenuous for him. The president made a heart to heart talk to Harkness, but it was of no use, "Old Hoss" declaring that the present life would make him an old McFadden could not get down to the McFadden could not get down to the weight and was allowed to go on at 129 pounds. He forced the fighting from the start and proved to be the stronger. Williams, however, was very clever and had the better of the third round. But the end came suddenly at the close of the fifth, when McFadden landed a half-pook on the Englishman's law.

Critchlow at once wired Billy Dutch of Denver, offering him the position, which no one seems to want; and if the latter accepts he will be here in time for Friday's game. Meanwhile it is just possible that Heine Martin is tired of his job and would like to go to some summer resort to recuperate. Word was received from Cheyenne yesterday saying that Martin had applied for a position on the Cheyenne Indian team and would be ready to go there on the 15th of this month. It is also learned that President Critchlow has been corresponding with William Leishering of Denver in the hope of getting him out here to take Martin's place if the latter jumps his contract. Leishering is quoted as saying that he had an offer from President Salt Lake and Springville Marksmen Critchlow to come out to Salt Lake and that he would be given a salary of $125 Another match shoot has been arranged between the Springville and Salt Lake Rifle clubs. President F. Dunn of the Springville club wrote to this city yesterday asking for a return match, and a meeting of the officers of the local city at once decided to accommodate the Springville man. The date was set for Sunday, June 22, and will be held at the range on Eleventh South and Fourteenth a month if he could make good. ers of the Chinese gardener, Gee Yam, has escaped from the city jail. The officers hold that he must have had outside aid, as the greatest care had been taken to prevent his escape. His absence was discovered by Jailer Critchlow yesterday morning when he took up Young's breakfast.

Young had sawed through one of the bars of the inner cage, crawled through the opening, sawed another bar in a corner of the outer cage, and gone through. His movements were traced to the top of the cage, but from that point there is no further clue as to New York, June 2.—First Baseman Doyle was deposed from his position as captain of the New York team today. Second Baseman Smith was appointed captain in his stead. The change, however, did not bring about a change in New York's losing streak. Attendance, 2,300. Score: how he got out. A trusty called Logan, who had finished a sentence for drunkenness, but had asked the privilege of remaining over night, is suspected of having aided Young by unlocking the door during the temporary absence of Charles Critchlow, a son of the jailer, who was on duty in place of his father during the night. Much regret is ex-pressed at the escape of this man, as the evidence of his guilt was growing stronger each day. Brown, who is suspected of being his partner in the crime, is still safe in the county jail, but Young is the man identified by the other Chinaman as having fired the

COUNCIL TO INVESTIGATE. How Young Escaped, a Mystery They

Vienna, June 2.—An American jockey named Vandusen of St. Louls, who rode Hazafi, the favorite, in the Austrian Derby, which was run yesterday, was summarily and permanently suspended on charges of bumping and crossing. It is alleged Van Dusen endangered the lives of four ickeys. This decision prevents Van Dusen, from riding anywhere in Europe and the United States.

Van Dusen said to a representative of the Associated Press that he was at a loss to understand the charges, and asserted that his riding had been perfectly straight. The race was won by Llubar, an outsider. Want Solved. The council met in regular session last evening. C. W. Hestmark was appointed poundkeeper and the appointment was approved.
